DEPARTMENT OF
Humanities & Social Sciences

BITS Pilani, K K Birla Goa Campus

Department of Humanities & Social Sciences

About the Department

The Humanities and Social Sciences at BITS Pilani, K. K. Birla Goa Campus, was established in 2004. The department is dedicated to recruiting faculty members from newer research areas alongside traditional disciplines. It provides support and autonomy to the individual teachers to develop their areas and introduce new courses, particularly in interdisciplinary areas. The expertise of the faculty members range from Shakespearean studies, literary theory, ecocriticism, film studies, meta-cognitive studies, tourism studies to developmental studies, disaster management, environmental social sciences, maritime studies, qualitative psychology, mental health and professional ethics.

Our Mission and Vision

The Department of HSS is one among the several technology and science departments at the K. K. Birla Goa Campus envisaging the vision of BITS Pilani University (to be deemed). The Department of HSS aims at bridging the gap between technology, science, and humanities; theory and praxis; and academics and society, through offering courses to undergraduate students in multi-and trans-disciplinary academic areas such as Literary and cultural studies, Tourism studies, Ecocriticism, Indigenous Studies. Environmental Humanities, Cross-cultural communication, film studies, digital humanities, gender studies, environmental adaptation, disaster management, development studies, international relations, maritime studies, philosophy of mind, bio-philosophy, ethics, cognitive science, and so on. By bridging the gap between disciplines, the Department of HSS aims at sensitizing students about ethical, aesthetic, environmental, societal, political issues and concerns, thereby enhancing their intellectual and critical abilities. Owing to the undergraduate students' special interests in humanities and social sciences, the department offers two minor programmes in Philosophy, Economics and Politics (PEP), and English Studies. In tandem with the research acumen and expertise of the HSS faculty member, the department offers an M. Phil. in Liberal Studies and Ph.D. in HSS. The research programs are designed with a focus on understanding the deep societal connections between humanities/social sciences and science/technologies. These programmes help to augment the knowledge and competence of the PhD and M.Phil research scholars in interdisciplinary fields within Humanities and Social sciences. The research scholars are encouraged to present research papers in national and international conferences and publish in highly reputed journals which strengthen their critical thinking and communication skills a requisite for teaching, research and for analysing the real-life problems in the world. The department aims at embodying a holistic and value-oriented approach towards creating/engaging in knowledge production in the diverse fields of humanities and social sciences, and providing an intellectual space for students to think critically, consistently engage with societal problems, and thereby create a just world for all living beings.

BITS Pilani, K K Birla Goa Campus

Department of Humanities & Social Sciences

About the Department

Since its inception in 2004, the Department of Humanities & Social Sciences at BITS Pilani, KK Birla Goa Campus, has earned recognition for its excellence and innovation in teaching and research in traditional and contemporary fields of study. The Department believes that all scientific and technological endeavours are embedded in society. Social arrangements foster STEM initiatives, and the ensuing discoveries, inventions and innovations shape society. The practitioners of science and technology must therefore understand how societies function and grapple with the ideas that emanate from society.

The faculty members of the Department of Humanities & Social Sciences engage in cutting-edge research that is socially, culturally and politically relevant. Their diverse competence implies that the Department actively promotes interdisciplinary thinking and learning. The Department's expertise covers a wide range of disciplines: from literary and cultural studies to film studies, communication and media studies, area studies, development studies, environmental studies, disaster management, meta-cognitive studies, maritime studies, qualitative psychology, mental health, and professional ethics.

The Department aims to enrich the awareness and knowledge of the students in humanistic and socio-scientific studies and to enhance their creative and critical thinking skills, enabling them to excel in their professional and personal lives and to become well-rounded human beings who are committed to social causes and values.
